

The Connection

In This Issue

To call all people to a vibrant life of faith in Christ

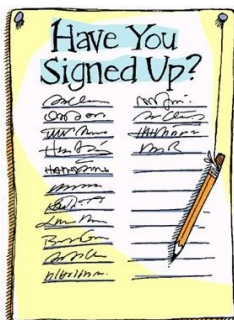

Camp WAPO

Tomorrow, our youngest campers venture off for a weekend at Camp Wapo, with the older students leaving on Sunday, July 29. Please pray for their time away, for the camp staff, and for the power of this summer's theme to be realized. Campers will study Jesus' teachings on relationships and look at communities throughout scripture to better understand how we can live out God's calling to live, serve, love, and pray together. May each camper grow in faith through his or her camp experience. The camp offers a daily blog. To catch a glimpse of all the fun happening at camp next week click here.

Young Families Gathering

Join others on Friday, August 3 from 5:30-7:30pm at the Zeccardi home for a get-together of young families! We'll have a full-size bounce house and build-your-own sandwiches, chips, fruit and dessert. This is a great way to connect with other families with young kids. If you have children in kindergarten or younger, please sign up in the lobby or via the online link (<https://sites.google.com/view/thezeccardis/home>) by July 29.

Fall Registrations

As we all enjoy summer, plans are developing for fall programming for children and youth. Find more registration information here for Sunday School (ages 3 - grade 5) and here for Confirmation/Middle School Ministry (grades 6-8). We are already excited for a new year of serving, learning, and growing in faith.

Upcoming Events: (for more, visit Resurrection's website)

Wapo One Day, August 1
Food First Sunday, August 5
Guided Hands Puppet Camp, August 13-16